DEMAND FOR WILLOW BASKETS

The fact that a Chicago merchant is advertising in German trade papers for a million willow clothes baskets is pointed to by experts on willow culture in this country as evidence of our neglect of a profitable industry.

Climate and soil are as favorable for willow culture in this country as in Germany or anywhere else, and the market for willow of the better grades is the best in the world. Generally speaking, land that will grow wheat will grow willows. Their cultivation is not difficult and profits are usually good. But up to the present time Americans have not taken hold of the matter in earnest, though both interest and production have been on the increase of recent years as a result of the efforts made by the Department of Agriculture to inform the public of the opening which willow growing offers.

The Germans handle the business well. They have industrial schools where basket weaving is taught Many of these schools grow their own willow rods, cut them, and peel and prepare them for use. To the mutual advantage of both pupils and proprietorers, arrangements are made to allow pupils to work part of the time in the "holts," as the willow fields are called, belonging to the schools, and in that way earn enough to pay their tuition and board. They then become familiar with all parts of the business, and when they graduate they are competent to take places as overseers of willow farms or foremen in wicker ware factories. The schools profit by getting much of their work done without paying cash for it.

American willow growers and manufacturers of willow ware must meet that competition; but those who have investigated conditions here and abroad feel confident that the American has advantages which will enable him to compete successfully if he takes up the business with characteristic American energy.

Instructions for the growing of basket willows are sent out by the forest service, upon request, together with a statement of the returns to be expected. The service is devoting special attention to testing every known variety of basket willow in order to find the best varieties for home growers. In the early spring time cuttings from all approved basket willows are sent gratis to applicants who desire to establish willow holts.

TRIED TO LAUGH AT DEATH.

Although Conrad Steingruber laughed at the Christ Hospital physicians, in Jersey City, who said that he would die in 24 hours from the effects of a bite from a dog, the prophecy was fulfilled yesterday. Steingruber said he was a disbeliever in hydrophobia, and that he would be around again in a few days, despite the warnings of the physicians. He rapidly grew worse, however, and all hope was given up of saving his life. He remained conscious until the end, and almost the last words he spoke were that he would get well.

Steingruber was bitten by a dog a little over three weeks ago, but paid no attention to the bite, and when warned by his wife that he might develop rabies he merely laughed at her, saying hydrophobia had no terrors for him. On Monday last he began to show signs of rabies, and consulted a physician. On Wednesday he called at the hospital, and when offered a glass of water he was taken with a spasm. From that time until he died his suffering was intense.

FARO AMONG FASHIONABLES.

A story of a faro game at high stakes in a luxuriously furnished private dwelling in the fashionable section of the upper West Side was disclosed in New York, on Thursday, at the hearing of Martin Phillips, who was arrested late Wednesday night, charge with larceny. Neville R. Moxley, formerly of Pittsburg, who gave his present address as New York city, was the complainant, alleging that he lost $600 in a faro game dealt by Phillips.

In his story to the court Moxley said that he came to New York to work a "system" with Phillips, who, he said, wrote him that they could make $2,000 out of Phillips' employer, Moxley, it was alleged, was to put up the necessary money and to get 60 per cent. of the proceeds, the remaining 40 per cent. to go to Phillips. Moxley said he came to New York with $600, saying that much was needed to work the "system."

When the magistrate asked Moxley if he did not know the arrangement he had entered into was illegal Moxley hesitated and was severely lectured by the court for his part in the matter. Phillips was held in $1,500 bail for trial.

Diarrhoea Cured.

"My father has for years been troubled with diarrhoea, and tried every means possible to effect a cure, without avail," writes John H. Zirkle, of Philippi, W. Va. "He saw Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy advertised in the Philippi Republican and decided to try it. The result is one bottle cured him and he has not suffered with the disease for eighteen months. Before taking this remedy he was a constant sufferer. He is now sound and well, and although sixty years old, can do as much work as a young man." Sold by W. F. Creighton & Richard Gibson.

SATURDAY EVENING, AUG. 15, 1908.

"THE ROAST beef of Old England" may yet again be purely English, or at any rate British. It is pointed out that Scotland produces more than enough cattle to feed its own people, and Ireland produces many times enough, while England herself has about enough for home consumption. The United Kingdom had in 1906 no fewer than 11,674,019 head of cattle, while New Zealand had only 1,786,850, Australia and Tasmania only 7,602,024 and the six continental countries of Denmark, Sweden, Norway, Holland, Belgium and Switzerland only 10,149,378. If the domestic supply were utilized at home, it is argued, exports might be abolished and the United Kingdom might so far as meat is concerned become self-sustaining.

THE NEW YORK PRESS says that President Roosevelt has ordered the renomination of Governor Hughes. As overlord of the republican party, the president decided that the situation in New York imperiled the election of Taft and that immediate intervention was necessary before greater damage should be done to the presidential candidate's chances of carrying the state. Still, Mr. Roosevelt says he will not interfere with New York State politics!

INSTEAD of Holland sending an ultimatum to Venezuela demanding an apology for the expulsion of the Dutch minister at Caracas, it now appears that President Castro had ample cause for giving the Dutchman his passports. The dismissal of De Reuss was the result of a letter which he made public, telling of the almost dictatorial rule of Castro and of its ruinous effects upon the country.

SECRETARY WRIGHT announces that he will make no statement concerning the status of the eight West Point cadets, whose dismissal for hazing has been recommended, until next week. The secretary wants to make sure how the president stands on this matter before he ventures another decision.

THERE is rejoicing in naval circles that little difficulty is experienced in obtaining recruits for the fleet. It is not strange that many young men who cannot find the boasted prosperity of the republican party on land should take to the water.

ACCORDING to some persons, a vacation consists in going to some place which you do not know whether you will like for the purpose of spending money which you are certain you will need later on.

THE wheat crop this year is six points above the ten-year average. Of course, the republicans have done it. But they didn't produce the panic of 1907; did they?

IS A protective tariff right in principle? It is just and equal in practice? If not, is it honest?

MR. FORAKER says that Taft has a weakness. It must be a weakness of the head. Surely a great going concern, like Taft, has no bodily weakness.

Washington, Aug. 15.

The Turkish government has nominated Husseiu Kiazim Bey to be its new diplomatic representative to this country vice Memaed Ali Bey recalled, with the rank of ambassador. Although the United States has maintained an ambassador at Constantinople for more than a year, the Turkish government has been represented in this country up to this time only by a minister.

Declaring that the Southeastern Freight Association of railroads was organized and is maintained under agreements and for purposes which constitute an illegal contract and conspiracy in restraint of trade, and that the proposed rate increase forms a suppression of all competition, the railroad commission of Alabama, through Chairman W. D. Nesbit, today filed formal complaint against the Louisville and Nashville and 13 other railroads at the Interstate Commerce Commission.

The Treasury Department today made public the provisions of a parcel post convention between the United States and Uruguay, effective July 1, 1908. No parcel exceeding 11 pounds in weight is permissable.

The board of officers which has been superintending the flights of the big dirigible balloon built by Captain Thomas S. Baldwin for sale to the United States government, report today that as a result of the test made last evening the officials had attained, subject to correction, was 91.61 miles per hour. The balloon was required to make 20 miles under penalty of losing 15 per cent. of the purchase price for each mile less than that amount. The price to be paid for the balloon was $6,750, so that unless subsequent correction shall increase official figures today, Captain Baldwin will get 15 per cent. less than the contract price.

The Treasury Department is preparing to turn over to the Pennsylvania Railroad a cool million and a half of cash, a warrant for that amount having been signed by acting Secretary Coolidge today. The money is payment to the railroad for improvements in connection with the new Union Station in this city, made on behalf of the District of Columbia.

Announcement is made at the Interstate Commerce Commission that the mediation board, Chairman Knapp and Commissioner of Labor Neill, have succeeded in securing an agreement between the Order of Railway Telegraphers and the Chicago Rock Island & Pacific, in the controversy as to interpretation of the nine hour law. The exact terms of the agreement will be made known later.

Adjudged sane by a lunacy commission in the Richmond jail, Count Theodore Charles Kreonafels-Thien, whose nervous system was probably wrecked by the startling news imparted to him some time ago that he was joint heir with his brother to the title and estates of his father, formerly Count Peter von Thien, of Germany, will be taken to the Virginia Hospital in Richmond to recuperate from an illness which has attacked his entire nervous system.

Charles W. Smith, of Warrenton, died Thursday night in the fifty-third year of his age. He was the son of John Smith, of Leesburg and went to Warrenton in 1877, where he engaged in real estate business. He had been the manager of the Warrenton Horse Show Association since its incorporation. Mr. Smith was injured in one of the jumping classes at the Norfolk Horse Show while riding one of his own horses, and since then he had been partially paralyzed.

WIEHLE PROPERTY SOLD.

Dr. H. B. Hutchinson, president of the Herndon Milling Co., has bought the entire Wiehle property, at Wiehle, consisting of 3467 acres, with mill, woodworking factory, warehouses, hotel, brick residence, many acres of timber and deposits of soapstone now being shipped away and excellent building stone.

This tract formerly belonged to Thornton & Son, and yielded them much timber for shipments to England and France for shipbuilding and, later, in the form of quartered oak. It was bought about 20 years ago by Dr. Wiehle, a wealthy Philadelphian, now deceased, who had planned a colony. The lumber and manufacturing business has been successful and the hotel with many advantages as a summer resort has had considerable patronage under a succession of lessees.

Dr. Hutchinson has not set forth his purposes in detail but it is believed that he will subdivide and develop the property as a location for many farms and smaller homes. The price is said to have been $80,000.—Herndon Observer.

WESTERN BAD MAN HANGED.

Edwin Hawkins was hanged yesterday afternoon at Tucson, Ariz., for the murder of Albert C. Leonhardt.

Hawkins was the self-confessed murderer of Leonhardt, of Columbus, Ohio, who was killed on December 22, 1907, while resisting a hold-up.

Hawkins at first claimed that the killing of Leonhardt was the result of an insult to Hawkins' wife while the couple were walking along the street. Later he admitted that he had tried to rob Leonhardt, and that in the struggle which followed he killed the Ohio man.

Hawkins took part in a number of petty robberies at San Francisco and was finally captured and sentenced to one year in Folsom prison. It was not long after his release from the prison until he robbed a number of houses in Los Angeles and then went to Tucson, where he secured employment as a street car conductor.

According to his own admission, he robbed the company by day and residences by night.

Efforts on the part of friends of William Montgomery, charged with wrecking the Alleghany National Bank of Pittsburg, Pa., and looting it of $1,250,000, to secure bail for him, have been checked by National Bank Examiner William L. Folds, who discovered the condition of the bank, caused the arrest and is now preparing evidence for the prosecution.

NEGRO CONFESSES.

Mrs. Katharine Powell, the aged lady who was assaulted at her home, in Portsmouth, Monday morning last, yesterday afternoon called at the county jail and positively identified Oscar Perry, the negro arrested.

When she entered the jail a trusty and the prisoner were brought before her, and she immediately picked out Perry as the man.

"You ugly brute, you came to my house and outraged me," she exclaimed, when her gaze fell upon Perry.

The man made no reply. He did not declare his innocence, however, as did King, the man who choked her, and, after robbing the premises, left her locked in a room unconscious.

Soon after Mrs. Powell left the jail Perry asked to see Deputy Sheriff Huybert, keeper of the county jail, and to him the prisoner made a full and free confession of his crime.

SAVES DAUGHTER FROM WELL

Stepping on an unsafe plank covering a cistern, falling 45 feet into water over her head, and being rescued from death by drowning by her father, was the way Mrs. Grace Baughan, of Gordonsville, celebrated the first anniversary of her wedding.

Seeing the young lady fall through the decayed covering of the cistern, Rev. G. W. Allman, her father, plunged in after her first catching up a rope with one hand and calling to his son-in-law. He plunged into the dark chasm, caught his daughter as she rose to the surface for the first time, tied the rope around her waist and paddled about the water until Mr. Baughan and laborers had pulled her to the surface and lowered the rope, again, to him. He was rescued.

LIQUOR LAW NOT VIOLATED.

J. W. Bellamy and eight other merchants of Williamsburg were acquitted yesterday afternoon of violating the Byrd liquor bill, in that they had sold "Nervo" a preparation containing 2 1-4 per cent alcohol.

The preparation is manufactured by the Rosenbeck Brewing Company, of Richmond, and is distributed and sold in "dry" territories to evade the liquor laws.

Richard E. Byrd, of Winchester, father of the liquor bill, was counsel for Bellamy, and argued that the preparation was a necessity, as it alleviated the desire for strong drink, and was the greatest advance toward prohibition ever inaugurated. "The people should and must have some malt beverage," he said, "and there is no other that is not intoxicating."

Killed Her Husband

New York Aug. 15.—Domenico Graziano, 22 years old, was shot and killed today in their Adams street, Brooklyn, home by his bride of six months after a furious quarrel over his request that she debase herself to keep him in idleness. Angered by his demand, the woman wipped out a revolver and shot Graziano through the heart. To the magistrate on the bench in the Butler street police court in Brooklyn when Mrs. Graziano, revolver in hand, entered and gave herself up, she said, "I have murdered my husband. He drove me to it. He wanted me to enter a life of shame." When the tumult, the woman's cry had created, had abated, she was held on a charge of homicide. She is only 19 years old.

Royal Dutch Babe Expected.

The Hague, Aug. 15.—The announcement that the accouchement of Queen Wilhelmina may be expected soon caused great rejoicing throughout the capital today.

It was a big surprise. Seven years ago, or shortly after her marriage, the queen was seriously ill, as a result of which it was announced that Holland need not expect an heir to the throne. Since then the question of succession to the throne has interested the political leaders.

Queen Wilhelmina is 26 years old and has been on the throne since her 10th year. In 1901, she married Prince Henry.

Threatened Lynching.

Norfolk, Va., Aug. 15.—Officials here today are preparing to resist the expected attack of a mob who early this morning attacked the jail at Portsmouth to lynch William King and Henry Smith, two negroes accused of assaulting Mrs. Katherine Powell, an aged white woman. The negroes had been removed here before the attack. It is reported that the mob is forming again near Portsmouth to march there to attempt vengeance on the two prisoners.

New York Stock Market.

New York, August 15.—The stock market all through the first hour was feverish and unsettled. At times heavy selling orders, mostly in 5,000 lots, were sent into the room causing further recessions in prices with copper stocks again the weakest on the list. Stories of an election scare and of Rock Island being committed to the bear side were vested with much less importance than yesterday. Commission houses were buyers on a moderate scale on declines.

TIGER'S LONG SWIM FOR PREY.

A correspondent at Penang transmits the details of an exciting encounter with a tiger in that island, a circumstance which at the first blush is somewhat curious, since tigers in Penang are historically in the same category as snakes in Ireland.

It was a Chinamen, of Balik Pulau, to whom the adventure befell. He heard an uproar in his compound at dawn and rising hurriedly found a tiger creating havoc among his pigs. He fired at the intruder and killed him in one shot at short range. The animal was 8½ feet long at the shoulder. Investigation showed that the tiger had swum across from the mainland (Province Wellesley), resting midway at the leper island of Pulau Jerijak.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

The negroes in all the larger southern cities today expressed indignation over the race riots at Springfield, Ills. A call has been issued for a great mass meeting of Atlanta negroes, at which protests will be made against the action of the whites in the Illinois disturbances.

Harry K. Thaw and his attorney, Charles Morschauser, both denied at Poughkeepsie today that the bankruptcy proceedings brought by White's slayer were for the purpose of getting him out of the state when he would be freed by a writ of habeas corpus.

Cool breezes today brought some relief to New York after 24 hours of torrid heat, which killed four persons and crowded every hospital in the city with victims of the sun. Thousands slept last night on fire escapes and roofs and the beaches were crowded with heat sufferers.

As the result of secret cabinet conference of a the premier with the army and navy authorities on Friday, the Japanese government today announces its decision to postpone until 1911 the $25,000,000 extra expenditures for the army and navy which was to have been expended next year as a post bellum measure.

Fire for a time this morning threatened to wipe out every building at the stock yards at East Buffalo, N. Y., and was only subdued after heroic work. The flames broke out at 2 o'clock from some unknown source. In the sheep shed half a mile long and 200 feet wide, two thousand sheep burned. The cattle sheds were saved. The loss will be over $200,000.

The explosion of 7,700 gallons of whisky in a tank in the F. J. Mackey Company's building in New York yesterday inflicted painful but not fatal burns upon Francis Taubner, an employe of the factory. Taubner was working about the tank when the bulb of an electric light burst and the fumes of the whisky caught fire, exploding and setting fire to the whisky. Taubner was thrown 30 feet against the wall. Another employe opened a valve permitting the whisky to flow into the sewer and the fire was quickly extinguished.

General Luke Wright, Secretary of War arrived at Hot Springs, today, to remain over Sunday and consult with Mr. Taft on departmental matters. "There are several matters relating to Cuba and the Isthmus that he will discuss" said Mr. Wright. "Did you bring the cadets with you?" he was asked. "Thank goodness no," he exclaimed, "I left their case in Washington."

Chronic Diarrhoea Relieved.

Mr. Edward E. Henry, with the United States Express Co., Chicago, writes, "Our General Superintendent, Mr. Quick, handed me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy some time ago to check an attack of the old chronic diarrhoea. I have used it since that time and cured many on our trains who have been sick. I am an old soldier who served with Rutherford B. Hayes and William McKinley four years in the 23rd Ohio Regiment, and have no ailment except chronic diarrhoea, which this remedy stops at once." For sale by W. F. Creighton & Co. and Richard Gibson.

RIOT IN SPRINGFIELD.

All detachments of militia at Springfield, Ill., Troop D, First Cavalry; Company C, Fifth Infantry, and the Gatling-gun section of the Fifth Infantry—with the fire department and the police, were unable to quell a mob that last night rushed about the city, first threatening an assault upon the county jail, hurling bricks at militia and police and shouting "Lynch the niggers!"

The riot was precipitated by another criminal assault before daylight yesterday morning by a negro, who crept into the home of Mrs. Earl Hallam, dragged her from bed into her garden, where he assaulted her and left her unconscious. Yesterday a negro, named George Richardson, was arrested and taken to the home of Mrs. Hallam, who said she believed he was her assailant.

In a cell next to Richardson's was Joe James, a negro who a few weeks ago entered the home after midnight of A. Ballard, and attempted to assault his eighteen-year-old daughter, and in a fight with the girl's father stabbed him to death.

A mob yesterday afternoon assembled at the jail crying for the blood of both negro prisoners. Yesterday evening when the mob became menacing the sheriff called an automobile to the jail at an appointed hour. Just a few moments before that time he had the fire department make a run to within a block of the jail. The crowd rushed to the scene of the pretended fire, and while the mob was thus broken up, deputies rushed the negro prisoners into the automobile, hurried them through the city, flagged a Chicago and Alton north-bound train, and took the prisoners to jail at Bloomington.

Last night the mob at the jail at Springfield grew to thousands and fully 5,000 more people surged through the streets near by. At 8 o'clock Troop D charged down the street, clearing the walks. A volley of bricks came from the mob. Two soldiers were stunned by bricks.

While the police force, sheriff's force, and militia were endeavoring to quell the mob at the jail hundreds crowded around the restaurant of H. T. Loher. The crowd had heard that the negro prisoners had been taken out of the city in Loher's automobile, and for this bricks were hurled through the plate glass windows, electric signs were shattered, and the large automobile of Loher was torn to pieces. The crowd increased and the police were powerless.

Crowds then rushed through the public square shooting "Nigger" at every negro they saw.

On the courthouse square Eugene W. Chafin, prohibition candidate for president, delivering an address, turned to take his handkerchief from a back pocket. Rioters thought he was preparing to draw a gun and someone hurled a brick, which struck him and broke up the meeting.

The negroes whom the crowd attacked and gave a severe beating took refuge in the sheriff's office. Three members of the gatling gun section were wounded by the mob.

A cordon of troops surrounds the jail. A committee of relatives of Mrs. Hallam was taken through the jail by Sheriff Werner to prove that the negroes were not there. At 9 o'clock the mob again gathered at Loher's restaurant and nearly everything in the cafe was destroyed.

The proprietor was warned, but failing to appreciate the seriousness of the situation, he did not attempt to escape. He was pushed by employes of the place, together with his wife, into a basement room in temporary safety.

Quick work was made of the restaurant. The mob began by breaking out the plate glass front, stripping the entire forty feet of both glass and casings. The automobile in which the rescue had been effected, had been left in front of the place. It was quickly turned upside down and fire was put to the machine. As the machine blazed, the mob who poured into the cafe, tore fixtures from their places and piled them upon the blaze. Even the sideboards and kitchen were stripped and all the table ware and dishes piled upon the blaze. The fire department which had been called out a half dozen times in abortive efforts to disperse the crowds again made a run to the restaurant but was powerless. Every line of hose that was stretched, was cut before a stream of water could be forced into it. The restaurant was stripped clean by the mob, which worked without hindrance until its work was nearly completed.

The riot grew more violent toward midnight, and Louis Johnson was shot through the neck at Loher's restaurant and instantly killed. A boy named Milton was shot through the arm. Three more soldiers were injured by thrown missiles.

Peoria and other cities were called upon to quell the riot.

The following statement was issued by Harry T. Loher, proprietor of the restaurant which was destroyed:

"I have been through one riot, in Cincinnati, in '93, the greatest in this country, when one hundred men were killed. It was to avoid loss of life that I took those men out of town. I did not want to favor the man; I have no interest in him whatever and would go just as far to punish him as anybody, but after going through the Cincinnati riot and knowing the sheriff as I do, I knew he would be killed first before he would let the jail be taken. I thought I would save life by removing the colored men. I would not shoot a man to protect my place. I only shot into the crowd as long as I was in personal danger myself."

The mob in front of Loher's place accused him of shooting Louis Johnson. Johnson was found in the bar-room in the basement.

Before the mob reached the negro district, the blacks had been warned of their approach and most of them had escaped to other sections of the city. Those who remained, however, were hunted down without mercy. When two or three negroes were together, they retaliated on the whites with whatever came to hand. Some few shots were fired but most of them threw brickbats and other missiles, wounding a number of their pursuers. The entire district between Mason and Jefferson streets, and Ninth and Eleventh streets was wiped out.

Shortly before midnight, the mob was in complete control of the city. A pawnshop was broke into and a quantity of guns, pistols, knives, and other weapons secured. Armed with these the angry citizens marched through the streets, chasing every negro in sight.

Springfield, Ills., Aug. 15.—This city is under martial law today following a reign of riot, arson, and slaughter last night which resulted in the death of three men, the wounding of fifty more and the destruction of hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of property by an infuriated mob. Throughout the night upwards of 5,000 men searched the negroes' quarters in an attempt to apprehend the negro assailant of a white woman.

The negro had been spirited out of town, however, and the mob turned its fury on the other blacks in the city. The negro quarters were fired and when the city fire department responded to an alarm, the rioters kept them from fighting the flames.

Police and special deputies were overawed and it was not until the arrival this morning of companies of militia from Peoria, Pekin, and Decatur, to reinforce the local company which had already been called out, that even a semblance of order was restored.

Throughout the early hours today additional troops reached the city on special trains. It is believed that the situation is now under control and that there will be no further outbreaks.

It was 2:30 this morning when the first out-of-town troops arrived and it was four o'clock before the flames were extinguished.

The saloons are to remain closed today, and every possible precaution is being taken to prevent a repetition of last night's disturbance. In addition to Loher's cafe, which was the first place destroyed by the mob, thirty-five places of business occupied by negroes on Washington street have been literally torn to pieces. The negro quarters, over these places, have been emptied and every window has been shot out. All the open liquor in these saloons was poured out. The sealed packages were carried away by the mob.

From 12th street east were the houses of the better class of negroes and the mob had just started to fire these when the soldiers arrived and the first bloodshed followed. The troops were thrown around the threatened district and the mob was ordered back. For an instant, it faltered, and then charged. The commander of the troops ordered a volley fired over the rioters' heads. It failed to produce any effect and a second charge was fired. Still the maddened crowd came on and the third volley was fired into the rioters, the soldiers aiming low so as to wound but not kill.

Immediately following came the lynching of Hunter, about 2 o'clock. The negro, a porter at the St. Nicholas Hotel, was set upon by a crowd and badly beaten. He drew a revolver and fired. The shot struck Jim Hayes, a white man, who was watching the fire. The mob swept down on Hunter from all sides, and in a jiffy a rope was procured tossed over the limb of a tree and with his screams for mercy the wretch was swung into eternity.

Plans were made early today by Governor Deneen for caring for the negroes of the city whose homes were destroyed.

The state arsenal will be thrown open and tents will be pitched at Camp Lincoln for the accommodation of the homeless.

The lynching of Hunter was the most atrocious act of the night, and a fitting climax to the maddened, infuriated barbarity that grew as the mob became drunken with frenzy and liquor. Earlier in the evening before the rioters had ended the "black belt," Hunter was accused of shooting a white man named Jim Hayes. He escaped however, and it was shortly after two o'clock this morning when he was seen standing in the doorway of his home. He was shot and while yet alive was strung up to a tree.

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 15.—Gov. Deneen has ordered out the entire Fourth and Fifth regiments of the Illinois National Guard. The first regiment is made up of Chicago companies exclusively and the Fourth from southern Illinois. The First regiment will reach here early this evening. The Fourth will be later to arrive.

Sheriff Werner who is in charge in Springfield, asked the governor for plenty of troops that there might be no danger tonight or Sunday.

W. Bowe, a young clerk in the county treasurer's office, is dying at St. Johns Hospital, here, from shots fired by a gang of negroes who pursued him.

Springfield, Ills., Aug. 15.—With four known dead and at least a dozen persons fatally wounded, and each hour bringing to light some new additions to the list of casualties, the situation here late this afternoon is the gravest imaginable, and even the presence of hundreds of state troops is scarcely expected to prevent another night of wild disorder.

The city is an armed camp. Negroes at first driven to concealment are taking courage and reports are being received at police headquarters from all sides which indicate that the blacks are arming and preparing to unite for defensive purposes.

This afternoon, it is reported that a number of negroes who were fatally beaten last night, have been dragged away to places of concealment. Reports from half a dozen outlying cities and towns, to which the negroes fled this morning, state that the blacks are going among their fellows and attempting to organize forces to return to Springfield and protect the old people and women and children, who were left behind today in the frantic rush for safety.

These fleeing negroes are said to be telling terrible stories of the outrages heaped upon them by the whites last night, and crying for vengeance.

Hundreds of factory hands and laboring people were paid in Springfield today, and despite the efforts of the police, and soldiers, to maintain order, a great deal of drunkenness and disorder is inevitable tonight.

The merciless attack upon Assistant County Treasurer, W. K. Bowe, by negroes today, fanned the hatred of the whites and the slightest indication of a repetition of this sort of retaliation by the whites will be sure to bring on a clash. Bowe was caught by a crowd of infuriated negroes, beaten badly and shot with five bullets in vital parts. He will die. He was robbed of several hundred dollars, his watch and a valuable diamond ring.

Scores of citizens are rushing the women and children of their families out of town to have them clear of any trouble which may develop tonight or tomorrow. The men are remaining behind to protect their property.

Bloomington, Ills., Aug. 15.—George Richardson and Joe James, the two negroes spirited here last night from Springfield, are today prisoners at the county jail here, where they are closely guarded.

Chicago, Aug. 15.—Under command of Col. Thomas B. Sanborn the First Regiment, 600 men, left this afternoon for the scene of the trouble at Springfield. They will arrive at Springfield about 7 o'clock tonight.

Free of Troublesome Lions.

Atlantic City, Aug. 15.—Puzzled district court officials were relieved of the problem of caring for three lions yesterday, when Madame Adjile, lion tamer at the Million-Dollar Pier, paid a claim for freight charges instituted by the Reading Railway. She refused to pay the bill earlier in the week when pressed by a court constable, and the animals were attached. Since then the constable has had the ticklish task of feeding the beasts, and there were prospects of his having to continue on duty for the 20 days prescribed by law for the holding of seized property.

AN OLD IDEA

Shown to be Absolutely False by Modern Science.

People used to think that baldness was one of those things which are handed down from generation to generation, from father to son—just like a family heirloom.

Science has shown the falseness of this belief by proving that baldness itself is not a constitutional disease, but the result of a germ invasion of which only Herpicide can effectually rid the scalp.

Washing only cleans the scalp of Dandruff, it doesn't kill the germs.

"Destroy the cause you remove the effect."

Newbro's Herpicide will do this in every case. It is also a delightful dressing.

POTOMAC BAPTISTS.

The fifty-third annual session of the Potomac Baptist Association, which met at Waxpool, Loudoun county, on Wednesday elected the following officers:

Rev. F. H. James, of Round Hill, moderator; J. R. Mansfield, of Alexandria, clerk; R. A. Hutchison, assistant clerk, and John W. Kincheloe, treasurer.

A report from the committee on new churches gave the names of the Second Church at Alexandria, with C. K. Hobbs as pastor; Mount Ararat, Stafford county, and Quantico, with Rev. A. T. Lyon as pastor. The applications were approved and the three new churches admitted into full fellowship with Potomac Association.

The association closed yesterday afternoon after a three days session and was one of the largest ever held by the association. The meeting this year was held with the Mount Hope Church. Judge C. E. Nicol, the moderator of the last association, presided at the opening session but declined the office of moderator on account of pressure of business. Rev. Geo. W. Popkins, the pastor of the local church, extended a most cordial welcome to the delegates which was responded to by Judge Nicol, on behalf of the association. The associational sermon was delivered by Rev. S. W. Cole, of Remington, whose subject was "God is in the midst of her." The following visitors were recognized from time to time during the session and invited to seats: Governor Claude A. Swanson, Congressman C. C. Carlin, Dr. F. W. Boatwright, president of Richmond college; Dr. R. H. Pitt, editor of the Religious Herald; Dr. J. F. Kemper, moderator of general association of Missouri; Dr. J. M. Pilcher, superintendent of the Sunday school and Bible board, Petersburg; Dr. H. M. Tribble, of Rawlins Institute, Charlottesville: Dr. R. D. Garland, secretary state mission board, Richmond; Prof Mitchell Carroll, of George Washington University, Washington; and the following ministers; Rev. W. F. Watson, Alexandria; C. K. Hobbs, Del Ray; N. W. Sowers, West Virginia; J. Murray Taylor, Kentucky.

The reports on the various boards were submitted and interesting discussions followed. The committee on the state of the churches reported that only 49 out of the 58 churches had thus far reported but the membership as shown by those reporting was 5,594—574 members having been received during the year; nearly $4,000 having been raised for the various boards a net gain over last year of $518.53. The value of the church property in the association amounts to $140,000. There has been much generosity in improvements and church building, thereby showing a spirit of enterprise and enthusiasm among the churches. Among those who preached during the meeting in the grove were Rev. W. F. Watson, J. M. Taylor, Dr. I. B. Blake, V. H. Council, Dr. J. M. Pilcher and J. A. T. Marstella. The association next year will be held with the Antioch Church, Prince William county, and the associational sermon will be delivered by Rev. W. F. Watson, of this city. The delegates and members who attended from this city returned last evening high in their praise for the hospitality accorded them by the members and friends of the Mount Hope Church.

EXCITEMENT AT FAIRFAX FLATS.

Many residents near the corner of Columbus and King streets thought that the flats at that corner were on fire this morning, judging from the cries emanating from that source. It was later discovered that a father was admonishing his child on account of the cigarette habit, and the son, like many youngsters of today, thought he was man enough to take care of himself, and proceeded to resist his father, when the latter administered a sound thrashing to the boy.

HOSPITAL BENEFIT.

The management of the hospital and the citizens' committee announce the completion of all details for the care and pleasure of every one at Luna Park, on Wednesday. Thousands of tickets will be distributed tomorrow morning to the Sunday school children of this city and Washington. Messrs. King and Clift, of the electric railway, will have every available train in service to obviate all trouble and discomfort in travel. During the afternoon free rides will be given the children on the chute, coaster, scenic-railways, etc. The special committee, with Mayor Paff, saw Capt. Baldwin, at Fort Myer, yesterday. After a most cordial reception and inspection of the air-ship, they were assured that everything being propitious he would sail over to the park between 2 and 6 p. m. This is an opportunity for all Alexandrians to see the greatest dirigible balloon. Mayor Paff today publishes his proclamation for a holiday on Wednesday, and it is hoped, that so far as consistant, all will observe the day for the benefit of the hospital. The committee on Monday will call on all the business men of the city and secure contributions toward the payment of tickets given to children. The local military company and the Friendship Veteran Fire Company will meet on Monday night to complete arrangements for the day.

HOSPITAL DAY.

A PROCLAMATION.

Mayor's Office,
Alexandria, Va., Aug. 14, 1908.

The citizens' committee has named the 19th day of this month as Alexandria Hospital day. Now therefore I, Fred. J. Paff Mayor, do hereby direct that the afternoon of Wednesday, Aug. 19, 1908, be regularly observed as a holiday and that the city offices be closed on that afternoon. Furthermore, I request all merchants to (as far as possible) close their places of business on said afternoon, thereby giving themselves and employes an opportunity to visit Luna Park and vie with the committee in making the occasion a great social and financial success, the net proceeds of which goes to our hospital, an institution of which every citizen is justly proud and in which all are interested.

Given under my hand and under the lesser seal of the city this fifteenth day of August nineteenth hundred and eight.

FRED J. PAFF, Mayor.

ALEXANDRIANS AWAY.

Quite a number of Alexandrians are visiting Atlantic City and most of them who have returned report a good time. From some of those who have arrived in this city in the last few days it is learned that many schemes and schemers are there who make attempts to extract money from visitors—especially Virginians. A few "gold bricks" have been bought by Alexandrians who could not withstand the temptation of the fair sex. It is learned that many arrests of young women have occurred, most of them belonging to a band of crooks from Chicago who have changed their base operations from Cape May to Atlantic City.

LEAVE TO-NIGHT.

As mentioned in the Gazette three launches leaves tonight for the lower river to be gone ten days. In the yacht Augusta the party will consist of Admiral Calmes and Messrs. Alonzo and Thomas Travers, Charles Moore, Louis Shumau, of this city, and Charles Gosher, of the Washington navy yard.

Mr. Bell's boat will carry Messrs. J. S. Douglas, E. C. Bell, C. W. Bell, Ernest Mills of this city, and J. Searle, of Washington.

Mr. Emerson's boat, "Victor II," will carry Messrs. Victor L. Emerson, A. T. Peak, and F. G. Grimes.

DON'T KILL THE SONG BIRDS.

It is now unlawful in Virginia to shoot thrush, goldfinch, oriole, wren, raincrow, red bird, mocking bird, robin, blue bird, martin, starling, cat bird or any other song bird, not including all game birds, and the latter only in the prescribed limits. The penalty for each offense is a fine of from $2 to $10. It is the duty of any person who knows of a violation of this law to report the same at once to the nearest magistrate, and thus let the offender be brought to justice.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

A young woman for assaulting a child, was fined $5.

Bertie Bell, colored, arrested by Officer Sampson, charged with withholding clothing belonging to a white woman. The case was settled by the police justice requesting the woman to make arrangements with the party in question for the payment of the bill.

MILK THIEVES AT WORK.

For the past month milk thieves have been operating in different sections of the city. No report of the matter has reached official circles but one business man on King street has lost three quarts every day for about a week. It is generally understood that the police department will take cognizance of the matter and try to bring the guilty parties to justice.

THE MARKET.

The market today was well supplied with country produce, vegetables, melons, &c., but prices showed but little change. The attendance of buyers was quite large notwithstanding the number of people who are out of the city.

AMUSEMENTS.

As will be seen by the advertisements on this page the moving picture shows at the Alexandria Amusement Co., and the Opera House offer rare treats tonight. It will be money well expended to see the pictures.

The Hess Oxfords, "the finest", reduced. $4.00, $5.00 and $6.00 grades go at $3.90. J. A. Marshall & Bro., 422 King street.

IT WAS THE CAT.

The southwestern section of the city was thrown into excitement about 11 o'clock last night by three pistol shots fired in rapid succession and followed a short time after by another shot. The pistol must have been the size of a small cannon, for it made a sound almost as loud as a gatling-gun. People gathered in crowds in the neighborhood, but none felt disposed to go to the firing ground. Finally a number of the bolder of the crowd banded together and proceeded to the house of "Col." Coleman, colored, where it had been ascertained the shots proceeded. Upon inquiring the men were told by Coleman that he had just shot at a cat that had been after him. The crowd then dispersed.

THE WEATHER.

The temperature continued high throughout yesterday—at 4 o'clock in the evening the mercury registering 94°. No relief came with night fall, but early this morning the mercury dropped and a heavy shower of rain fell about 7 o'clock. This soon ceased, however, and at 2 o'clock this evening the mercury had gotten up to 91°, though the humidity made the heat appear much more intense.

A Faithful Friend.

"I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy since it was first introduced to the public in 1872, and have never found one instance where a cure was not speedily effected by its use. I have been a commercial traveler for eighteen years, and never start out on a trip without this, my faithful friend," says H. S. Nichols of Oakland, Ind. Ter. SATURDAY EVENING, AUG. 15, 1908.

"The Good Old Days."

How times have changed! When we were young, people had bad colds, soaked their feet in hot water and got well. Now they have grip, take quinine and feel sick all over. Then they had sore throat, wrapped a piece of fat pork in an old sock, tied it around the neck at night and went to work the next morning. Now they have tonsilitis, a surgical operation and two weeks in the house. Then they had stomach ache and took castor oil and recovered. Now they have appendicitis, a week in the hospital and six feet due east and west and six feet perpendicular. They worked then; they labor now. In those days they wore underclothes; now they wear lingerie. Then they went to a restaurant; now they go to a cafe. Then they broke a leg; now they fracture a limb. People went crazy then; they have a brain storm now. Politicians then paid good hard cash for support; now they send government garden seeds. Yes, times have changed, and we all change with the times. That's progression.—Anell Hatten in Westphalia (Kan.) Times.

Power of Plants.

Farmers are well acquainted with the fact that the roots of trees will disrupt and sometimes overturn a stone wall, but the lifting power of tender vegetables is equally surprising.

The one result which has perhaps attracted the greatest attention is the discovery that a weight of two and a half tons can be lifted by the common pumpkin in the course of its development.

Dr. Carpenter relates the story of a paving stone weighing eighty-three pounds that was raised from its bed (when joined by others on all four sides) by such a soft piece of fungi as the common mushroom. And still another and more remarkable story is added to the above.

A man had a cask of sweet wine and placed it in an empty cellar to mature. When examined several years later it had risen from the floor of the cellar to the ceiling, having been borne upward upon the tender shoots of a vine fungus with which the cellar was filled.—London Home Notes.

Catching the "Tone."

He was a well meaning young man, but as curate in a small village he had never occasion to meet the class of people who frequented the fashionable parish to which he had just been appointed.

His new rector, wishing to help him on to success, had been liberal with advice and had duly impressed him with the importance of always taking the "tone" of the people with whom he mingled. Being invited to take dinner at the mansion of one of the members of the congregation and knowing that he would have to say grace, the young curate took his cue from the conversation overheard before dinner, and when his hostess nodded meaningly in his direction he delivered himself of the following, which he considered quite in keeping with the "tone" of the guests assembled:

"O Lord, thanks awfully, jolly good feed, wot?"—London Express.

The Miser's Carpet.

"Dr. Quain, the eminent physician, full of Hibernian wit, would sometimes tell unauthorized anecdotes of his professional experiences," says Sir Algernon West in "One City and Many Men." "Once he was attending a well known man of miserly habits in Mayfair, who when very ill asked him to honestly tell him if he would ever again rise from his bed of sickness. The doctor thought he never would. 'Please ring the bell,' said the patient, and when he had secured the attendance of his housekeeper he said: 'Have the strip of carpet by my bedside, which is a good one, wrapped up and put away. I shall not want it again, and if it is left here those undertaker's men will be sure to spoil it with their dirty boots!'"

A Man's Tact.

Nobody but Mr. Henley would have asked such a question in the first place.

"Miss Fairley," he said, "if you could make yourself over what kind of hair and eyes would you have?"

"If I could make myself over," said Miss Fairley, "I would look just exactly as I do now."

"You would?" exclaimed Henley in honest surprise, and to this day he can't understand why Miss Fairley thinks him a man of little taste and less tact.

A Real Dilemma.

"Say, Mike," queried Plodding Pete, who was looking at the piece of a Sunday school paper that had come with a handout, "wot does it mean 'bout bein' between de devil an' de deep sea?"

"It's de same as bein' told t' take yer choice between goin' t' work an' takin' a bath," explained Meandering Mike.—Chicago News.

A Friend In Need.

"Loan me a dollar, old man," said the actor. "I'm hungry."

"I'm broke myself," responded the stage manager, "but I'll put you on in the bill tonight. We have an eating scene."

"Man, I'll starve before night."

"In that case I'll call a rehearsal."—St. Louis Republic.

Music.

All music is more or less dramatic, and so the march of music is toward the theater. The times of mere enjoyment of tone combinations are past.—Herr Nikisch.

There is nothing more frightful than ignorance in action.—Goethe.

Granulated Sore Eyes Cured.

"For twenty years I suffered from a bad case of granulated sore eyes, says Martin Boyd of Hemlock, Ky. "In February, 1903, a gentleman asked me to try Chamberlain's Salve. I bought one box and used about two-thirds of it and my eyes have not given me any trouble since." This salve is for sale by W. F. Creighton and Co., and Richard Gibson.

A CHANGE IN CHICAGO.

Costly Generating Plant Goes Out of Existence—The City Must Pocket the Loss.

According to reports from Chicago, all generating stations of the municipal electric light plant have been shut down and current is being purchased from the Chicago sanitary district, which utilizes the water power of the drainage canal. That this will reduce the cost of lighting the streets is reasonably certain, but there is no certainty that it will reduce it to a figure as low as would be given by a private company, because a large proportion of the lighting cost—distribution and maintenance of circuits and lamps—will still be in the hands of the city and therefore most unlikely to be economically administered.

Even if the experiment is a financial success from now on, the present change involves an enormous loss to the city in the practical wiping out of its costly generating system. This loss, if charged up to the period during which the plant has been in operation, would greatly increase the estimated cost of lights for the past twenty-one years, which was already in excess of lighting by contract. It is such occurrences as this which show how worthless are the figures of costs given out by city lighting plants, ignoring, as they do, the changes entailed by progress in the art of lighting or by special contingencies. The only time a city knows what its lights are costing is when it has a contract with a company. Municipal lighting is a gamble in which the city stacks the cards against itself by its unbusinesslike methods of operating and accounting.

An Economic Reversal.

During the last few years the rates of public service corporations have decreased materially in spite of the increased cost of labor and materials. This result is due directly to increased business and improvements in the various arts involved, but indirectly to the business and technical ability of the men in control. On the other hand, scarcely a week passes that does not bring the news of an increase in rates of some municipal plant, the two latest recorded being the municipal waterworks of Fort Scott and Girard, Kan. This may be due to bad management or to the original adoption of too low a rate.

Usually when cities take over their utilities the necessary authority from the voters is secured by a promise of rate reduction, and that promise is kept without regard to the ability of the business to stand it. The result is poor service, plant deterioration or increase of taxes. Frequently all of these results follow, with an ultimate return to the rates charged by the corporation that was put out of business because it was "robbing" its customers.

The city clerk of South Haven, Mich., writes that bonds to the amount of $10,000 have been voted to make up a deficit on operation and construction of the municipal electric plant.
